8 ESCENA GOLF CLUB

Blending championship golf with a classic Palm Springs setting, a round at Escena Golf Club is as much about the surroundings as it is about unforgettable golf. The towering San Jacinto mountains and blue skies frame every tee shot. Abundant palm trees, native desert landscaping and dramatic waterscapes add to the sensory feast. Ranked among the Top Ten Public Courses in California by PGATOUR.com, Escena is a must-play for any desert visitor.

DRIVING DIRECTIONS

From L.A./Riverside/West: Take I-10 East to the Gene Autry exit. Go right (south) on Gene Autry, left on Vista Chino, right on Clubhouse View Dr. Follow signs to the golf club.

From Palm Desert/Indio/East: Take I-10 West to Date Palm. Go left (south) on Date Palm, right on Vista Chino, left on Clubhouse View Dr. Follow signs to the golf club.

GOLF COURSE

Escena's expertly crafted Nicklaus Design golf course features unobstructed sightlines and generous driving corridors. Strategic bunkering, waterscapes and undulating greens are there before you, but at the same time there is ample room for you to decide how much you want to take on. Stretching to nearly 7,200 yards, Escena offers a formidable test for the skilled player, but with four sets of tees and room to roam, Escena is enjoyable for anyone.

FACILITIES

Escena's stunning mid-century-inspired clubhouse features a fully-stocked pro shop and the highly popular Escena Lounge & Grill, with indoor and patio for breakfast, lunch and dinner. 10 INDIAN WELLS GOLF RESORT

INDIAN WELLS

4

GOLF RESORT

(760) 346-4653

Just twenty minutes from Palm Springs International Airport, discover the Indian Wells Golf Resort, Southern California's premier golf destination. Among its many accolades, the Indian Wells Golf Resort holds the distinction of being the only 36-hole public golf facility on Golfweek's Top 20 "Best Courses You Can Play" in California.

DRIVING DIRECTIONS

Travel eastbound on I-10 to Cook St. Exit and turn right on Cook St. and travel southbound to Hwy. 111. Turn left on Hwy. 111, then left on Indian Wells Lane.

GOLF COURSES

The transformation is now complete and a world-class golf experience awaits you. Clive Clark's Celebrity Course opened to rave reviews in November of 2006. Playability, diversity, and challenge are among the highlights of this desert masterpiece, which features breathtaking mountain views, stunning water features, and an unparalleled golf outing for players of every level. John Fought's Players Course opened to great acclaim in November of 2007. A brilliant contrast to the Celebrity Course, the Players Course features dynamic bunkering and generous fairway corridors – a fascinating combination to challenge all types of players. Both courses served as host of the Golf Channels hit reality show "Big Break Indian Wells" in 2011.

FACILITIES

More than just a clubhouse, by design, the magnificent IW Club houses a grand golf shop, Callaway Performance Center, fine and casual dining venues and banquet facilities. Plus, an expansive practice facility and a lighted, natural grass putting course are located just outside the golf shop. And uniquely, four luxury resort/spas are situated within walking distance.

Desert Falls Country Club

(760) 340-GOLF (4653)

Put Desert Falls Country Club on your must play list for your next visit to the desert. Rated one of the Top Ten courses in the desert by the SCPGA, Golf Digest's "Best Places to Play" awarded Desert Falls 4 Stars.

Desert Falls has served as a Stage I PGA Tour qualifying site, hosted the Senior Tour, and was the inaugural course for the Frank Sinatra Celebrity Tournament.

DRIVING DIRECTIONS

From Interstate 10, exit Cook Street going south. Turn left (east) on Country Club Drive, one block to Desert Falls Parkway, turn left into the entrance of the club. Drive straight through to the Clubhouse.

GOLF COURSE

Open in 1985, Desert Falls Country Club's 18-hole course is challenging, fair, and lends itself to all levels of play. It's surprisingly hilly for the desert. Heavily trapped with large, multilevel greens. The 7,084-yard, Par 72 course features 5 tee placements on every hole. The course rating is 74.0 with a slope rating of 133 (one of the highest rated courses in the desert). Water is a major factor on seven holes. Three signature holes, including the 18,000 sq. ft. green on number 14.

FACILITIES

The Clubhouse features wireless Internet connection, the "Grille" (serving weekend brunch and daily lunch indoors and outdoors), and lounge. Dinner served twice weekly in one of two banquet rooms. Golf shop offers the latest in equipment and apparel. Locker rooms with showers, driving range, and practice facilities. Beverage cart on course daily in high season.

From Interstate 10 coming east from Los Angeles, exit Gene Autry Trail and turn right. Then go 5 miles, turn left on Dinah Shore, then right on Crossley.

GOLF COURSES

The Legend Course (originally the Palm Springs Municipal) was designed by William Bell in the late 50s, and it offers a traditional layout with tree-lined fairways and undulating greens. The Resort Course was designed by famed designer Ted Robinson in 1995. This 6,500-yard desert layout features rolling terrain, desert landscaping, and waterscapes galore, a true desert golf experience.

FACILITIES

Tahquitz Creek Golf Resort is open to the public year-round. 30-days advance booking reservations are available. Arnold Palmer Golf Management has a staff of trained professionals onsite to help make your experience truly unforgettable. We also host tournaments, corporate outings and meetings, weddings and private parties.
